H.E. Retno Marsudi
Minister of Foreign Affairs
The Government of the Republic of Indonesia
JAKARTA

Dear Excellency, Ibu Retno,

Subject: Earthquake in Lombok, Indonesia

It was with great distress and sadness that we received the news about the recent 7.0 Richter Scale Earthquake that hit the area of West Nusa Tenggara Province, Republic of Indonesia on 5 August 2018 which occurred one week after a strong 6.4 R.S. Earthquake hit the same area on 29 July 2018.

I would like to convey our heartfelt condolences to the people of Indonesia who are undergoing the tragic and traumatic experiences due to the loss of lives, the displacement of families and the widespread damages to property, agriculture as well as infrastructure. Our deepest sympathy and solidarity to the grieving families of the victims and all those affected by this calamity.

While your country and people are undergoing this serious crisis, I assure that the ASEAN Secretariat and the ASEAN Coordinating Centre for Humanitarian Assistance (AHA Centre) stands ready and committed to support the Indonesian Government in any possible manner to overcome the impact of this natural disaster and in alleviating sufferings of the affected victims, as guided by the spirit of One ASEAN One Response.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.
